

“Cultivating talent and creating opportunities to develop brighter futures for Indigenous young people.”

RECRUITING NOW:

Indigenous Employment & Training Coordinator

Located on the site of the old Redfern Public School, the NCIE boasts a sports hall, arts/craft and activity rooms, tutorial centre, gymnasium, 25-metre heated swimming pool, sports playing and training field and campus accommodation for young Indigenous Australians.

When we open for business in 2009, the NCIE will offer jobs and careers in camping, hospitality, customer service, health and fitness, aquatics, sports competitions, sports coaching, child care and youth leadership.

The NCIE wants to employ as many Indigenous people in these casual, permanent and full time jobs.

Position Title:	Indigenous Employment &amp; Training Coordinator
Reports To:	Facilities Manager, NCIE
Salary Package:	$70,000 per annum + super
Status:	Fixed Term – 12 month Contract

This Indigenous Employment & Training Coordinator is a key position within the NCIE. The person selected will be responsible for implementing the Indigenous Employment and Training Plan.

The Coordinator will be responsible for finding and preparing Indigenous people to work at the centre when it opens and for providing ongoing recruitment and career development.

If you are passionate about your community, a strong leader and committed to increasing opportunities for Indigenous people you should contact:

James Ellender
Facilities Manager, NCIE
Mobile: 0413 888 491
Email: james.ellender@ymca.org.au

Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people are strongly encouraged to apply.

ARE YOU INDIGENOUS?

Applications close:
5pm, Wednesday 27th May 2009